Town Hall on 44th Avenue Security & Viewing Rosedale Emails That You Missed

Learn about what happened at the Town Hall on 44th Avenue Security

On December 2nd the Board held a Town Hall meeting to share information on how the Board plans to address the need for more security for the area bounded by 44th Avenue, now that the thick woods previously providing security have been cleared to make way for the extension of 44th Avenue.

We reviewed the options the committee has considered for this area – different materials, costs, construction issues, and noise abatement – and the rationale for the proposal given to the board for implementation. To see the self-explanatory presentation presented at the meeting, click here.
